

Family Literacy: A New Learning Opportunity

Vancouver Community College, in partnership with Literacy BC, the Centre for Family Literacy and 2010 Legacies Now, is excited to launch the FAMILY LITERACY CERTIFICATE PROGRAM.

The first of its kind in British Columbia, this credential offers an excellent curriculum facilitated by leaders in the field.

Join us this spring for the prerequisite course Family Literacy Introduction. Offered in several community sites, this intensive course will provide an overview of key themes and issues, and introduce you to best practices in promoting literacy with adults, children and community groups.

This course is designed for those who currently work or wish to work in family literacy. It will also be of interest to those in related fields who want to learn more about family literacy. We welcome all interested participants who have the ability to speak, read and write English at a Grade 12 level or equivalency or instructor approval.

Course Number: FAML 1101

Course Fee: $62.00

CRN: 20476

Course Dates and times: See below

Required Text: Available from Instructor - $25.00

Please note that the exceptionally affordable tuition for this pilot offering is made possible by generous support from our partner organizations. The partners also acknowledge the generous support of the National Office of Literacy and Learning (HRSDC) in promoting family literacy initiatives across Canada.

Documents of Completion will be issued to all participants who successfully complete this 15 hour course.
